

Community schemes

The following information explains how to apply to the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal (NCAT) to resolve a community schemes dispute.

Mediation before lodgement

Mediation is compulsory for most community schemes disputes before lodging an application with NCAT.

A mediation service is provided by NSW Fair Trading. There is no charge for the service.

Applications in which mediation is compulsory that are lodged without evidence of attempted mediation will not be accepted.

If you are unsure whether you need to mediate your dispute check the orders table in this fact sheet or contact NSW Fair Trading on 13 32 20 or visit www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au

Applying to NCAT

To apply to NCAT complete the Strata and Community Schemes application form and lodge it with the appropriate fee.

Specify the section of the Community Land Management Act 2021 and the orders you want NCAT to make. You can request more than one order.

Interim order applications

An interim order application may be lodged to stop the actions of a party or to preserve the current state until the substantive application is decided.

The Tribunal can only make an interim order if it is satisfied on reasonable grounds that urgent considerations justify the making of the order.

There must be a separate but related substantive application, either already lodged or lodged at the same time as the interim order application.

There is a separate filing fee for an interim order application.

Copies of the application to other members of the association

NCAT will give a copy of the application to the parties and to the relevant association.

The association is required to give a copy of the application (except an application for a penalty) to all other members of the association.

Who is an interested or connected person?

The Community Land Management Act 2021 defines interested person in section 187 and connected person in section 6.

What happens next?

After applying to NCAT your matter will be listed for a directions hearing.

You and the other parties will receive a notice of hearing from NCAT specifying the day, time and venue of your hearing. Generally the first listing will be within 3-5 weeks.

The application will be served by the association on all other association members. Do not include any confidential information you do not want disclosed.

Directions hearing

At the directions hearing the issues in dispute will be identified, a timeframe for the final hearing will be set, and direction will be given for the exchange of evidence between parties and lodgement at NCAT.

Evidence and supporting materials

If your matter is not resolved at the first listing it will be listed for a contested hearing. NCAT will make a timetable for the parties to provide their written evidence to each other and to the Tribunal. You do not need to lodge all evidence with the application.

Can someone represent me?

NCAT Consumer and Commercial Division hearings are conducted as informally as possible. Parties are encouraged to present their own case.

If you want to be represented, send your written request to NCAT. Either at or before the first hearing a Tribunal Member will decide if you can be represented.
